

PRESS RELEASE – September 2006

ENJOY A £10 STAY AT TOP COUNTRY HOUSE HOTEL.

THERE'S never been a better time for a short break at the renowned Cottage in the Wood Hotel. Act fast and you could snap up a luxury room for just £10!

The award-winning country house hotel is celebrating the onset of autumn with a fantastic £10 room offer. Each day one double room, usually priced around £150, will be available for just £10 but it's first come, first served, so get dialling.

Owner John Pattin said: "Autumn is beautiful here so it's a great time for a short break. This is a superb offer and we know there is going to be huge interest so anyone who wants to come and enjoy a fantastic value stay should get in touch fast."

Set in seven acres of thickly wooded grounds, the hotel's unique position – nestled high above the Malvern Hills – is the perfect place to savour the beautiful autumn colours.

Curl up by the window and enjoy the stunning 30-mile panoramic views across the Severn valley that so impressed the Daily Mail that it named The Cottage in the Wood as having 'the best view in England'.

"If there is a heaven on earth, this is it." - Guests Mr & Mrs Scofield from Mitcheldean, Gloucestershire.

Guests will also be able to enjoy the delights of the restaurant, which has two AA rosettes and an imaginative and daring wine list that has scooped a host of awards including finalists in this year's AA Best Wine List and Johansens/Taittinger Wine List of the Year 2006.

The Cottage in The Wood is perfectly placed for exploring this beautiful and diverse area in the heart of England.

It is superbly situated for the many events at the nearby Three Counties Showground, or as a touring base to visit the delights of Worcester, the Cotswolds, Stratford upon Avon, Cheltenham or Hereford.

The £10 room can be booked for one night only and the offer runs until the end of December, excluding Christmas and New Year.
